The Artwork

A fun-filled box of clown faces exploding in various emotions. A friend of the artist, the late, internationally known actress Barbara Hamilton, exclaimed, "They're all you!" Maybe. Judge for yourself.

The Artist

Gordon Pinsent needs no introduction to those who appreciate good theatre, television, film and the written word, but few realize this multi-gifted, multi-award winning jack-of-all-media is also a highly successful painter as well. He has been sketching and painting off and on most of his life, producing highly colourful works of humour, wit and beauty.

A proud product of Newfoundland (now the Province of Newfoundland & Labrador) he resides in Toronto, Canada, and practices his varied professional trades throughout the world.
