The Artwork

Clown was commissioned, by PAL, from Pal Place resident, Elsie Sawchuk, as a proposed comedy award. It's first presentation was to members of CBC Radio's The Happy Gang during the inaugural year of the Canadian Comedy Awards. As the clown is looking into a mirror, the PAL logo, reflected in the mirror, is reversed.

The Artist

Elsie Sawchuk had a long, multi-layered and successful career as singer, actor, dancer, designer and builder of stage productions, all of which contributed to her prowess and popularity as a painter. Proudly Winnipeg-born, she resided briefly on Prince Edward Island but spent most of her life in Toronto, Canada. Elsie died there 28 February, 2015.
